Individual Profile:

– Pre-Politics:

Wiener flipped patties at Burger King while attending public school. After graduating from Harvard, he clerked for Justice Alan B. handler of the New Jersey Supreme Court. In 1997, Wiener made the move to San Francisco in part due to the city's beauty and LGBTQ+ acceptance. Shortly after, he worked for Wiener Heller Ehrman White & McAuliffe as a litigation attorney before becoming Deputy City Attorney of San Francisco.

– Political Career:

Wiener served as Chair of the San Francisco County Democratic Central Committee and was consequently elected as San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 2010, where he used his influence to author bills focusing on improving public transportation and housing accommodations for San Franciscans. In 2016, he decided to run for San Francisco's state senate seat that had just been vacated by Senator Mark Leno. He defeated Jane Kim for the seat and has been reelected twice since.

– Committee Duties:

- Chair of the Senate Budget Committee
- Chair of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee
- Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee

- Chair of the California Legislative Jewish Caucus
- Chair of the Senate Mental Health Caucus
- Previous Involvements:
 - Co-chair of the Alice B. Toklas LGBTQ Democratic Club,
 - Co-chair of BALIF (the Bay Area’s LGBTQ bar association),
 - Co-chair San Francisco LGBTQ Community Center
 - Served on the national board of directors of the Human Rights Campaign, the largest LGBTQ civil rights organization in America.
