

SASHA RENÉE PÉREZ

DEMOCRAT
DISTRICT 25

Personal Background

Sasha Renée Pérez is a 32 year old female of Mexican descent, making her one of the youngest California State Senators currently in office. Pérez is an open member of the LGBTQ+ community and identifies as bisexual. As a Southern California native, Pérez spent her childhood in the cities of Alhambra and Glendora. She is the daughter of two working class citizens, her father an electrician and her mother a social worker.

Issues of Interest and Ideology

- Accessible higher education.
- Housing solutions for those experiencing homelessness.
- Healthcare accessibility.

Pérez values reproductive rights, social equity, and government transparency. She has actively supported these beliefs by authoring bills such as SB 627 and SB 663. Additionally, in 2022, she acted as the campaign political director in support of Proposition 1.

Education

Pérez holds two degrees from California State University, Los Angeles. Additionally, she is a first generation college graduate.

- Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
- Bachelor of Science in Economics.

Votes Received (2024)

General Election

Primary Election

243,371
Votes

67,266
Votes

Career Background

Early Career

- Reporter and executive producer at Golden Eagle TV.
- Political advisor and policy consultant, in which she advocated for increased Cal Grant opportunities.
- South Region Representative for LA-32 Neighborhood Council.
- Director of Public Affairs at Campaign for College Opportunity.

Local Government

- Education Commissioner.
- Mayor of Alhambra.

State Government

- California State Senator. Beginning in 2024, her term is set to end in 2028. Pérez has spent nine months in office.

Prominent Donors

- Association of California School Administrators PAC.
- California Real Estate PAC.
- LGBT Caucus Leadership Fund.

All donors listed have contributed an amount over $11,000.

CONSTITUENT PROFILE SD25

Overview

California Senatorial District 25 is split between the counties of Los Angeles and San Bernardino. However, the majority of its territory is within Los Angeles County lines. District 25 houses notable cities such as Pasadena, Glendale, Glendora, and Claremont, among many others.

Economics

Prominent Industries

"Industries in State Senate District 25, California (State Senate District)." The Demographic Statistical Atlas of the United States - Statistical Atlas, statisticalatlas.com/state-upper-legislative-district/California/State-Senate-District-25/Industries.

The top three industries in District 25 are healthcare, education, and professional services.

Employment Data

- In SD25, 59.1% of the population is employed, 5% is unemployed, and 35.8% is listed as not in the labor force.
- SD25 has a median household income of $101,810.
- 10.5% of constituents living in SD25 are below the poverty line.

Demographics

Population

- The median age is 42.3, with 62% of constituents being between the ages of 18 and 64.
- 35% of constituents are white, 32% Asian, 26% Hispanic, 4% two or more races, and 3% Black.

Urban/Rural Breakdown

- SD25 is largely urban and densely populated. However, it does contain rural areas such as the San Gabriel Mountains.

Education

- 88.2% of constituents received a high school diploma or higher.
- 47.2% Received a bachelor's degree or higher.

Politics

Partisan Voter Registration

- There are 358,528 registered voters in District 25. Of those voters, 226,142 are registered with the Democratic Party, while the other 132,386 belong to the Republican Party, as well as others.

Past Election Voting History

- 2012 - 51.3% Democrat and 43.3% Republican
- 2016 - 39.5% Democrat and 26.8% Republican
- 2020 - 99.1% Democrat and 0.5% Republican

Issues and Ideology

SD25 cares about environmental protection, public safety, and homelessness. They are largely democratic leaning supporting typical party views.